

Rules for Applying

You must agree to the following terms to apply:

Application year *

2017

- This application must be completed by you (the applicant). Parents, guardians, counselors, teachers or others can only provide information and review the application. If the application is found to have been completed by someone other than you, it will be disqualified. If you are under the age of 18, your parent(s) or guardian(s) has allowed you to submit this application.
- You are not, to your knowledge, related as a spouse, child, step-child, grandchild or step-grandchild to any individual who is currently employed by The San Diego Foundation, serving on the Community Scholarship Program Committee or sitting on The San Diego Foundation Board of Governors.
- The data you have provided in your application will be shared with and evaluated by several volunteers and staff members. All contact information is hidden from volunteers, though other identifying information, including your name, will be visible. Volunteers are instructed to keep all student information confidential and shall only discuss applicants with their fellow committee members.
- The information provided in this application and any materials that you provide (transcripts, federal income tax returns, etc.) should be, to the best of your knowledge, true and correct. You must not knowingly withhold or misrepresent any information related to this application.
- The 2017–18 FAFSA launched on Oct. 1, 2016. Beginning this year, students will be required to report income information from an earlier tax year. For example, on the FAFSA for the 2017–18 academic year, students (and parents, as appropriate) will report their 2015 income information, rather than their 2016 income information. The same change to the Common Scholarship Application's guideline was made in September 2016 to coordinate with the FAFSA.
- You must carefully read the criteria for each of the scholarships to which you apply. If you apply for more than five scholarships for which you are not eligible and/or if you do not submit any additional materials required for more than five scholarships, your application may be disqualified.
- Your application and all additional materials must be submitted by the deadline of 2:00 pm, Wednesday, February 1, 2017.
- Award decisions and notifications are made on a rolling basis. Students will be notified of the result of their application(s) by June 1, 2017.
- The San Diego Foundation reserves the right to adjust or cancel scholarship awards at any time on a situational basis.
- Communication between you (the applicant) and the Community Scholarship Program will be primarily through email. You must send any email address updates to scholarships@sdfoundation.org and you must monitor your spam, junk or quarantine folders for emails from scholarships@sdfoundation.org or automated.email@smarterselect.com.

If you agree to these terms, provide your first and last name: *

Personal Statements

Instructions

Your personal statements should show us your unique experiences, strengths, potential, goals and aspirations. Your goal should be to give us a strong sense of who you are, what you want to do and who you want to be.

Your personal statements should be well-written and well-organized. We recommend that you:

- Write about something different in each personal statement.
- Draft and revise your personal statements in a separate document first. Be sure to then proofread for spelling, grammar, and punctuation, and compare the length of your responses to the word count ranges stated below.
- Review one final time before pasting the text into your application.

Your short answer should be between 100 and 250 words in length.*

Your essay should be between 250 and 500 words in length.*

Please note that your application may be declined if you disregard these word count minimums and maximums in your personal statements.*

Prompts

Short Answer: If you have decided on your educational and career goals, describe them and explain how your interest in these goals developed. If you have not yet decided on your educational and career goals, describe some possible goals and explain how you might explore and decide on them. *

Your response must be between 100 and 250 words in length.

Maximum Number of Words: 250

Essay: Tell us about a personal accomplishment, contribution, or experience that is important to you. Why is this important to you, and how does it relate to the person you are? *

Your response must be between 250 and 500 words in length.

Maximum Number of Words: 500
