 Carlsbad Charitable Foundation
A proud affiliate of San Diego Foundation

In 2007, a group of Carlsbad residents and community leaders came together to create Carlsbad Charitable Foundation (CCF).

Working in partnership with San Diego Foundation, the purpose of this charitable foundation is to increase responsible and effective philanthropy to provide for the future of Carlsbad through a community endowment.

Grantmaking

CCF's grants are designed to help nonprofit organizations achieve their operational objectives. Annually, the Grants Committee and the CCF board reviews and approves proposals through a competitive grants process, after which the entire membership votes to determine the grantees.

Matt McLaughlin Live Here, Give Here Program

Matt McLaughlin established an endowment legacy fund at San Diego Foundation that continues to make a profound impact on North County. The Matt McLaughlin Live Here, Give Here program supports membership dollars raised, growing CCF grantmaking from member contributions for our community.

Grantee Spotlight: Interfaith Community Services

A $60,000 grant to Interfaith Community Services supports its efforts to hire a full-time, first-time social worker/case manager to focus on triage, intervention, and placement for substance-addicted individuals at the Interfaith Recovery and Wellness Center (RWC), in Carlsbad.

Interfaith empowers people in need to stabilize their lives through comprehensive programs, in partnership with faith communities and people of compassion.

The RWC was conceived with the vision that all individuals should have an opportunity to pursue wellness and recovery, and in turn, experience an improved quality of life regardless of their ability to pay.

Interfaith RWC opened in summer 2017 and provides integrated healthcare, utilizing evidence-based substance abuse & mental health interventions to address dual-diagnoses.
