Power of Collective Giving

Central to the mission of Chula Vista Community Foundation (CVCF) is the notion that citizens combining their resources and talents can and will have a significant, lasting impact.

Annual membership contributions are allocated as follows:

- 50% for annual grants made by CVCF members to qualified nonprofit organizations
- 50% invested by SDF into a permanent CVCF endowment fund

Power of Participation

- Each year, CVCF members identify a focus area for annual grants.
- Nonprofit organizations that are addressing the needs of Chula Vista's citizens are invited to apply for a grant.
- CVCF members choose the nonprofit organization(s) to receive the foundation's grant support.
- Each CVCF member is actively meeting the needs of Chula Vista residents via the annual grants process.

Chula Vista Voices

"The Chula Vista Community Foundation's support has had a huge impact. Thanks to the generosity of its members, we expanded our 8-week leadership program to Chula Vista and graduated a record number of young adults who are now eligible to become paid instructors for Outdoor Outreach. Each one of these thirteen youth is having a positive ripple effect – inspiring others to pursue and realize their dreams from having a strong social support network, to career development and academic success." – Ben McCue, 2018 Grantee, Executive Director of Outdoor Outreach

"Funding from CVCF enabled Meals on Wheels San Diego County to provide every senior a 60% subsidy on their meal costs, with many receiving additional discounts based on their income levels. Without this CVCF funding, Meals on Wheels would have been forced to place seniors on a waiting list. Additionally, with this funding support, we were able to maintain a strong administrative team to recruit, train, and sustain our volunteer force, thereby increasing the affordability of our service and creating a strong sense of community while supporting these at-risk seniors." – Ali Duarte, 2020 Grantee, Grants Manager, Meals on Wheels San Diego County
